This is the fourth edition of the #AperitivosThyssen concerts which take place thanks to the collaboration of Heineken on the Museum's Terraces on Saturdays at 1pm. All are free entry until all places are filled.

Four 20th-century, avant-garde works from the Museo Nacional Thyssen-Bornemisza's collections which evoke rhythmical progressions are inspiring each of the musical sessions that combine pop, soul and r&b sounds with electronic music, performed by groups Aries, Blanco Palamera, Asunción and Mow. These paintings involve geometry and abstraction, speed and movement; vibration and light, plus music. The concerts will feature drum machines, synths, loops and vibrating voices; contemporary melodies and dance; and guitars and percussion.
