Miguel Klingenberg and Isidre Fainé, new Trustees of the Fundación Colección Thyssen-Bornemisza

At the Meeting of the Board of Trustees of the Fundación Colección Thyssen-Bornemisza held today, Wednesday 7 November, the proposal to appoint Miguel Klingenberg as a Thyssen Trustee was accepted. Proposed by the Thyssen-Bornemisza family, he will replace Norman Rosenthal who resigned last July.

In addition, the Ministry of Education, Culture and Sport has announced that it will appoint Isidre Fainé as a Governing Trustee to replace Ramón Caravaca who will cease to hold this position on 13 December this year. This appointment will be operative following the necessary approval by the Council of Ministers through a Royal Decree.

Miguel Klingenberg is currently Vice-secretary General of Repsol SA. Isidre Fainé Casas is the President of Caixa Bank.

The Board of Trustees of the Fundación Colección Thyssen-Bornemisza consists of twelve Trustees, four of which are Ex officio Trustees as a consequence of their position, four are appointed by the Council of Ministers through Royal Decree (Government Trustees), and four are proposed by the Thyssen-Bornemisza family (Thyssen-Bornemisza Trustees).
